What is it? - Our company websites allow you to easily place your orders, check your job status, request a quote and access BCT forms and price lists.

Who is it for? - This site is for BCT Dealers only. As your trade-only supplier, our services are only offered to those that are in the printing and graphics industry as resellers.

What is it? - Orderprinting.com is an Internet based business stationery ordering solution. As the single most widely used solution for corporate stationery in North America, it is built to empower and support your business customers. It has been a proven, and growing, commercial solution with over 5.5 million orders placed since its inception in 1999.

Who is it for? - This program gives the end user, your customer, the ability to place and manage their corporate identity print orders online.

What is it? - BCT's newest online solution is a Retail Online Catalog that allows you to design your custom orders online. This internet based ordering system has a Virtual Design Studio that gives you the tools to easily design online. Start with one of our Design Ideas or start from scratch. You can also select from a BCT catalog logo, or upload your own custom logo. Your designs are saved for easy future reordering.

Who is it for? - This program is designed for you, our dealer, to design orders without the investment of expensive design programs. Future development includes a storefront that can be linked thru your website.
